

Microbiology Quiz

1. What is the infection of the lining of the brain commonly known as?
2. What is Lymes disease caused by?
3. What is the name of the micro-organism that is known as the 'Flesh Eating Bug'?
4. Is Athletes' foot caused by bacteria, fungi or a virus?
5. What area of the body is most affected by the Influenza virus?
6. Name two sample types received by the Microbiology Department.
7. C.difficile infection is caused when the 'good micro-organisms' in the gut are wiped out with antibiotics. True or False?
8. Open wounds give MRSA easy entry into the body. True or False?
9. What is the name of the common stain performed to identify bacteria?
10. Look at the table display called 'checking that your water is safe'. What is the most probable number of coliform bacteria per 100ml in the sample tray on the table?

